Executive Summary

The Executive Summary should provide a brief summary of the main points of the report so that the reader can get a quick understanding of the main findings and recommendations in relation to each of the key response areas (i.e. Corporate Response Mechanisms, Country Office Response Structure and Capacities, Deployments, Programmatic Response, Operational Response, Coordination, Communication and Resource Mobilization).

The Executive Summary should be max 2-3 pages and should cover the following main sections:

Introduction

Analysis of the Response

Summary of Key Findings and Lessons Learned

Recommendations

1. Introduction

This section should contain an introduction to the context and situation in the country and outline the main objectives of the After-Action Review process.

1.1 Country situation and context

1.2 Objectives of After Action Review

2. Methodology

This section should provide information on the methodology linked to the overall After-Action Review approach. It should give an overview of the scope of the review, information needed and methods of data collection, analysis and synthesis. As such it should provide an outline of the information to be collected through a desk review of existing documents related to the global, regional and country level response, including relevant procedures and practices, as well as the primary data collection and validation through methods such as surveys (if applicable), focus group discussions and key informant interviews. The inception report prepared by the consultant and agreed with CRU will offer extensive information for this section.

- 2.1 Scope of After Action Review
- 2.2 Overview of information needed
- 2.3 Data collection and analysis
- 2.4 Validation of findings

3. Analysis of the UNDP Response

The analysis of the UNDP Response should provide insight on any contextual factors influencing the response, a brief timeline of key events occurred in relation to the crisis and an in-depth analysis of each of the main response components outlined below.

- 3.1 Contextual factors influencing the response
- 3.2 Timeline of crisis events and response actions
- 3.3 UNDP in-country structure and response capacity
- 3.4 UNDP corporate response mechanisms
- 3.5 Deployment of experts
- 3.6 Programmatic response
- 3.7 Operational response
- 3.8 Coordination

3.9 Communication and resource mobilization

4. Findings and recommendations

This section should summarize the key findings and lessons learned based on the analysis carried out in the previous section and should provide corresponding recommendations for each of these. Please make sure that the recommendations are as concrete and actionable as possible.

4.1 Key findings and lessons learned

4.2 Actionable Recommendations
